

For Immediate Release

MCGILL GIANTS TO TEST WARRIORS IN SEASON HOPP OPENER

The McGill Redmen, led by mammoth 6'9", 300 lb. John Naponick, visit Loyola College Sports Complex on Tuesday evening, November 9th, at 8:00 P.M., to do battle with the 1971-72 version of the basketball Warriors.

Naponick, a former University of Virginia star, demonstrated his prowess with a 21 point, 20 rebound performance in last week's McGill victory over Bishop's. Teaming with the giant in attempting to put a quick end to Loyola's dominance of basketball in this area will be slick ball-handling guard Joe Prah, himself a transfer from the University of Pennsylvania.

For the Warriors this game will also be their initial outing in the newly formed Q.U.A.A. (Quebec University Athletic Association). League Champions of the now defunct Ottawa- St. Lawrence Intercollegiate Athletic Association the past 4 seasons, the Loyola cagers will be facing a rebuilding year.

Head Coach Doug Daigneault will have only three veterans returning from last year's club, 6'5" Jim McCarthy, 6'3" Greg Gill, and 5'11" guard Dave Burke. Promising newcomers include 6'7" Bob Breen, 6' John Dore, and two former members of Quebec's Gold Medal Winter Games team of last year, 6'5" Trevor Briggs and 6' Wagne Hussey.

Burke and Breen have been elected co-captains of this year's squad.

Steve Konchalski
Home 489-3380
Office 489-7204
Press Release No. 16.

BASKETBALL - MCGILL AT LOYOLA TUESDAY, NOV. 9TH 8:00 P.M.